

Supervised Classification Study of the City of Dalworthington Gardens in Tarrant county,Texas

Area of Study (Dalworthington Gardens)

Years	Water	Development	Forest	Urban
2019	9%	14.20%	31.50%	45.00%
2015	1.60%	6.90%	47%	44.10%
Change %	7.40%	17.30%	-15.50%	-1.90%

This Map depicts the Landsat 8 imagery for the purpose of area studies in developmental changes for the Texas Sterling Construction company. Using this satellite data to identified their construction from future areas they have in the City of Dalworthington Gardens imagery. Data created using Landsat 8 raster analysis it indicates changes done by their construction company in the studied area since 2015 until 2019 there been increase in water of (17.30%) and construction development areas of (7.40%) .A significance notice in decrease also been notice in forest changes of (-15.50%) and urban a degrees of (-1.90%).with this data can point out there growing of the companies and the deforestation Vs water bodies in the area.

Name: José B. Nieves Paugh

Data Source's: ESRI Data, USGS & GIS Class 130 Lab.

Disclaimer: Data created for studies and training purposes of used in classes GIS. Research distribution only.